

Unit: The Progressive Era & Imperialism

Lesson: American Imperialism

Name _____

»→ KEY TERMS ←«

Complete the crossword by using the clues.

ACROSS

5. the policy of a stronger nation extending its economic, political, or military control over weaker territories

DOWN

- 1. someone who believes his/her nation or ethnic group is superior
- 2. to take control of a country
- 3. a group of countries or lands ruled by a single authority
- 4. naval forces

APPLY: Choose four key terms, and write sentences using each of your chosen terms. The sentence should show the meaning of the terms. Circle the key term in each sentence.

- 6. _____
- 7. _____
- 8. _____
- 9. _____

»→ DATES & EVENTS ←«

Match the cause (left) to its effect (right).

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 10. Hawaiian Queen Liliuokalani wanted to remove the 1887 amendment to the constitution. _____ 11. Yellow journalists blamed Spain for the U.S.S. Maine explosion and wrote sensational headlines calling for war. _____ 12. The U.S. was worried Great Britain, Germany, France, Japan, and Russia would turn their Chinese spheres of interest into colonies. _____ 13. Filipinos wanted to be independent. _____ 14. Industrialization increased in the U.S. _____ 15. In 1890, Congress passed the McKinley Tariff. _____ 16. Chinese nationalists wanted foreign governments to no longer control China. _____ 17. President McKinley believed the U.S. needed to Americanize Filipinos. _____ | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. John Hay wrote the Open Door Notes to maintain open trade with China in 1899. b. The Boxer Rebellion began in late 1899, and lasted until September 1901. c. The U.S. would not grant the Philippines independence. d. Business owners wanted the U.S. to expand so they would have new markets for their goods. e. The Spanish-American War began in 1898, and is called the first "media war." f. Hawaiian sugar planters wanted the U.S. to annex the Hawaiian Kingdom. g. In 1893, sugar planters in the Hawaiian Kingdom rebelled against the queen. h. Emilio Aguinaldo led a 3-year rebellion in the Philippines from 1899 to 1902. |
|---|--|

APPLY: Choose 5 major events and create a timeline.

Unit: The Progressive Era & Imperialism

Lesson: American Imperialism

Name _____

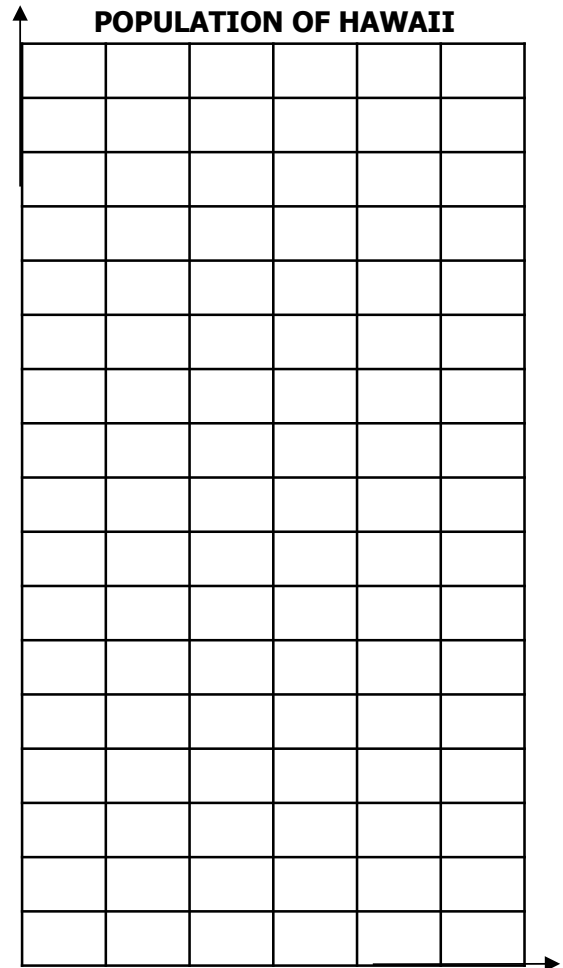

DATA ANALYSIS

Use the data from the table to create a multi-line graph. Include a key and labels for the x-axis and y-axis.

Year	Total	Native Hawaiian	Caucasian	Chinese	Japanese
1853	73,137	70,036	1,683	364	0
1866	62,959	57,125	2,400	1,306	0
1878	57,985	44,088	3,748	6,045	0
1890	89,990	34,436	18,939	16,752	12,610
1900	154,001	29,799	26,819	25,767	61,111
1910	191,909	26,041	39,158	21,674	79,675

Source: Office of Hawaiian Affairs (2017)

KEY:

APPLY: Use the multi-line graph you created to answer the following questions.

- In which year was the lowest percentage of Native Hawaiians compared to the total population? What was the percentage? _____ hint # Native Hawaiians divided by # Total Population
- Why do you think the population of Native Hawaiians decreased while the population of Caucasians increased? hint Think about why the Native American population decreased when Europeans arrived in the Americas.

- Which group increased the most between 1890 and 1900? _____
- Why do you think the number of Chinese and Japanese increased through 1910? _____
- What percentage of Japanese made up the population of Hawaii in 1910? _____

LITERACY CONNECTION

Answer the prompt using complete sentences in paragraph form.

Explain the role yellow journalists had in the U.S. entering a war with Spain. Be specific in your response.
