

The Industrial Economy: Crash Course US History #23

1. In what ways did the Civil War help American Industrialization AND what's the economic change over time?

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|--|--|

2. What were the geographic, demographic, and legal factors that contributed to the economic growth?

|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|

3. And the changes we're talking about here were massive: in 1880, for the first time, a majority of the workforce worked in _____ jobs. By 1890, two-thirds of Americans worked for _____, rather than _____ or owning their own businesses, and by 1913, the United States produced _____ of the world's total industrial output.

4. List 6 effects of the railroad.

|  |
|--|
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |

5. In the Mystery document, explain Henry Adam's chief concern.

|  |
|--|
|  |
|--|

6. What are the good and bad acts that industrialists did?

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|--|--|

7. Contrast vertical and horizontal integration.

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|--|--|

8. Describe 3 problems facing labor.

|  |
|--|
|  |
|  |
|  |

9. Contrast the AFL with other labor groups.

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|--|--|

10. What is Social Darwinism, who argues for it, and why?

|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|